Dr. Potts Speaks To Methodist Women

United Methodist Women of the Lynchburg District met at Trinity United Methodist Church, Concord, for "A Day Apart Retreat" on Sunday afternoon, March 31st, at 3 p.m.

Dr. Edgar A. Potts, former District Superintendent and Interim Pastor at Fort Hill United Methodist Church, was guest speaker for the service.

Dr. Potts spoke on "I Am The Vine You Are The Branches" and presented a most inspiring program.

The Rev. Leon Lawrence, pastor of the host church, sang "He Touched Me" for the group in attendance.

Over 200 United Methodist Women throughout the District attended the observance of "A Day Apart Retreat."

The United Methodist Women of Trinity United Methodist Church were hostesses for a social hour in the Fellowship Hall at the church.

Defensive Driving Course Offered

A Denfensive Driving Course will be offered April 16, April 18, April 23 and April 25 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. each night. The course will be conducted at the District Extension office, Main Street, Appomattox and is sponsored by the Women's Committee of the Appomattox County Farm Bureau. There will be a short break each night, and the women's committee will serve refreshments.

The instructor will be Mrs. Zeannette K. Roberts of Bedford, Chairman of the Virginia Association of Women Highway Safety Leaders, District Eleven. Mrs. Roberts has taught many classes in the district.

Defensive Driving is driving to prevent accidents in spite of the incorrect actions of others and adverse conditions. In this course there will be 4 sessions in which to raise questions concerning safe driving techniques and to provide answers. Safety driving is a continuous learning process and hope that you will find this course to be an unsettling experience. One that will cause you to re-examine your driving behaviour and your preconceptions about how to handle driving emergencies you may never have actually experienced.

COURSE - 8 HOURS
2 HOUR SESSIONS

Session 1 - Preventable or not? How to avoid a collision with the vehicle ahead.

Session 2 - How to avoid a collision with the vehicle behind. How to avoid a collision with an oncoming vehicle.

Session 3 - How to avoid an intersection collision. The art of passing and being passed.

Session 4 - The mystery crash. How to avoid other common types of collisions.

Important - It may save your life or the life of someone you know!

The course is provided through the cooperation of the Virginia Highway Safety Division. It is open to the public. You are required to have a drivers license. The fee will be $1.00 for a Drivers Manuel, and there will be no test.

Advance registration is preferred. Telephone and enroll or for further information call: Mrs. Richard Krantz, 993-2860; Mrs. J. D. Gilliam, 993-2935; Mrs. H. B. Jones, 392-3283; Mrs. John Hix, 248-5396; Mrs. R. K. Martin, 248-6508; Mr. R. W. Mitchell, Chairman Appomattox Highway Safety Commission.

Dodson's Names Manager of the Year

Don Sublett, Lynchburg District Manager for Dodson Bros. Pest Control Co., Inc., whose office serves eight surrounding counties, was selected "The Manager of the Year" at the Company's annual Managers' Meeting.

Mr. Sublett, who began his career with Dodson Bros. in service-sales department in the Roanoke Office, moved to Assistant Manager until February, 1972, when he became Manager of the Lynchburg Office. Mr. Sublett was in competition with 21 other Managers, representing 46 Branch Offices, with a five state area.

E. J. Pinigis, Vice-President of the Firm, recognized the five (5) top Managers, each one receiving Merit Certificates and gold watches. Pinigis stated the recognition is based on "Growth, Operating Efficiency", plus community service which he elaborated on Sublett's accomplishments in 1973.

Sublett was presented the "Manager's Trophy" with his name engraved for the year 1973. This will be on display in the Lynchburg Office until the Company's next annual meeting in January, 197a5. Sublett was also the recipient of a "European Travel Certificate" for he and his wife, for one week.

The Sublett's with their two children reside at 218 Tomahawk Drive, Lynchburg, Va.
